

Key Professional Practice Behaviours or Standards

	Ethics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Making prudent judgements to specific situations which involves balancing the best interest of the farmer, yourself and/or your organisation • Allowing for the law, the impacts of your values and intent and a willingness to engage in honest self-examination
	Professional Boundaries	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The rules & limits you set for yourself when working with a farmer which prevents blurred lines between your personal and professional lives whilst maintaining a strong working relationship
	Consent	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The right of the farmer to be informed about the work you are doing together and to make decisions about it. This is the foundation for a working alliance and collaborative partnership • To capture and use specific and identifiable information, photos, data etc
	Privacy and Confidentiality	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Not disclosing information to others about the farmers or those with whom we work unless it is with their consent
	Self-Care	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Taking time out to undertake activities which reduce stress, enhance life, and restore health & wellbeing • Prevention of burnout & regular assessment and support of your physical and mental health & wellbeing
	Code of Conduct	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Explicitly outlines organisational expectations of the work behaviour of employees • Places an obligation on employees to take responsibility for their own conduct

*Farmer = farm family, grower, producer, land manager etc